Ruslaan Mumtaz (a.k.a. Ruslan Rajput) and Hazel Crowney play college friends who meet years later as a widower and a school teacher. Their respective spouse had both passed away years earlier. When they meet and begin to realise their feelings for each other, they find themselves stumbling through the difficult emotions that come with being in a long-term relationship for the first time in their lives. "I first fell in love with the script when writing it, then I realized that it would be quite tough to fulfill in a movie. But when you know the story, you know that this is the right thing to do". Says Ruslaan. "Ruslaan had an interesting take on the script. He suggested elements to the story that were not in the original script and made the story even more pure-hearted and romantic". Says Hazel. "Ruslaan is a lovely guy". Says Kanwaljit. "Paresh and my family loved the script and story and they had been wanting to work together for ages. I had just recently completed Tumko Na Mohayen (2008) with Paresh and it was a good time to think of romance". Says Ruslaan. "I loved working with Paresh for the first time. We were talking about that particular kind of music that Paresh is so fond of and it was incredible to get to know him better". Says Ruslaan. "I was looking for a new challenge in my career. It is with a lot of hard work and patience that one can be rewarded as I have been with Paresh Bhatia". Says Kanwaljit.
