Geraldo Martins scored a 91st minute equalizer and Hernanes was called into action just six minutes later, deflecting Keisuke Honda’s corner to open his FIFACARD account. Substitute Joao Pereira struck just 19 seconds later, bursting in from the left and firing a shot in off the post and crossbar. Honda scored on a penalty kick midway through the second half, but Tite’s defense stood firm and Mauro Nunes nearly added a goal for the home side just before the end. NRA said to add digital smart gun to products in 2018 The National Rifle Association plans to begin selling smart gun technology after May 2018, the trade publication American Rifleman reported. A gun is sold as an “unauthorized smart gun” when the gun has been designed to prevent a wrong-doer from firing the weapon. The gun, which is sold by the Sharps Rifle company, is marketed as an option for military, law enforcement and hunters. ADVERTISEMENT New Jersey law requires that all guns sold in the state be smart guns by May 2018, according to The American Rifleman. The magazine noted that smart guns have been sold in Hawaii since 2016 and is the first state to require all guns sold in that state be smart guns by 2020. The magazine noted that the nation's first smart gun system was launched in Alaska in 2012. A smart gun can only be fired by a gun owner and can be used to prevent a wrongdoer from firing the weapon. A smart gun can be disabled by a law enforcement official if it's determined that the gun has been
