I turned on my computer and saw the silliest smiley face of the day on my twitter feed. "The man who knows what he wants is who gets what he wants." Huh? I had to ask my twitter pal what he was talking about. Here was the response. Just a slight modification to convey the message. First, the smiley face and second, to be inclusive of his full name. I thought that was a pretty cool example of creative retweeting. Michael is super positive and true to himself. Just like my father who I was introduced to when I was a very small child. Dad's face was always a great place to go to when I was worried about something. He was always able to pull up a funny story about his childhood. He did it in such a way that made me feel comfortable. I remember thinking that Dad had "the perfect face". My father always said that I looked like him too. So I began my search for the best version of Dad. In Michael's case, his face was the perfect place to go to when I needed to feel comfortable. But let's take a step back before we analyze Michael's face. I'd be curious to hear any of your thoughts on his personality and demeanor, if you are more familiar with him than I am d0c515b9f4
